MISC. ORDER
DOCKET NO: 24 MS095

ORDER

The undersigned judicial official, acting under authority of OCGA §38-3-60 et seq., hereby declares the existence of a judicial emergency in Floyd County, the Rome Judicial Circuit, as the result of a weather system with Hurricane Helene which officials designated as likely to cause hazardous road travel. This weather system is expected to substantially endanger or infringe upon the normal functioning of the judicial system and the ability of jurors, litigants, and other persons to have access to the courts or to meet schedules or time deadlines imposed by court order, rule, statute, or administrative rule or regulation.

The judicial emergency will be in effect for Floyd County all day Friday, Sept. 27, 2024. During this period, access to the County courthouse and Clerks' office is expected to be impossible or impractical, and there is no reasonably accessible or appropriate other facility for the conduct of court business.

For the period of the judicial emergency defined above specific to the appropriate county, the undersigned hereby suspends, toll, extends, or otherwise grants relief from deadlines, other time schedules, or filing requirements enumerated in OCGA §38-3-62.

Let the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Georgia be notified of this action by email to the Clerk of said court. Let all Judges and Clerks of Court of the Rome Judicial Circuit, and the Clerks of the Georgia Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of Georgia, be notified and served with a copy of this action by email. Let the Clerk of Court of this Court provide notice of this Order to affected parties, to their counsel, and to the public by posting a copy in a place of public view in the Clerks' Office, on the county's or clerk's website, and/or at other public view location(s).

This 26th day of SEPTEMBER, 2024.

JOHN E. NIEDRACH, CHIEF JUDGE
ROME JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
